Inspiration for your backyard; 3 cool shrubs to plant now

Say Hi to summer

Move over, hammocks—it's swing time. (We have nothing against a nap ... but swings, well, they're just more fun.) You'll find them hanging here and there from oaks at the totally redone Carmel Valley Ranch, in the tawny hills above Carmel, California. So grab the ropes and shove off, remembering what it feels like to fly to the sky. Soft opening this month, officially opening late summer; from $349; carmelvalleyranch.com
